

ALTERNATIVE EDUCATION

Behavior Intervention and Support Module:
Developing a Prevention System

Lou Denti, Ph.D.
Special Education Program
California State University, Monterey Bay

~ Module 3, Session 2 ~ Activity 1

1. Describe one of your buttons, that when pushed, tends to get you into a power struggle with kids? Describe the situation that occurs when you get your buttons pushed. What is the consequence of your action?

2. Develop a “Brief Behavior Plan” for one student using the following points.
 - Pinpoint and describe one student’s behavior and how often it occurred.
 - Identify the goal of the behavior and then answer the following questions:
 - How did I feel?
 - What did I do?
 - How did the student respond?
 - What can I do to improve my behavior?
 - Choose an intervention to stop the misbehavior:
 - Goal:
 - Strategies:
 - Specific technique :